Long Description

Gerard Germain, a native of Haiti and a practicing physician in the United States, has completed his new book "The Luckiest Man Who Grew Up in an Engineered and Manufactured Poverty": an exemplary autobiography of the author's journey from destitution in a poor country to becoming an accomplished doctor.

Author Germain inspires readers within real-life moments of wit and wisdom: "The must-read 'The Luckiest Man Who Grew up in an Engineered and Manufactured Poverty' is the story of a little boy who grew up in one of the world's poorest countries and made an incredible journey to the top of the world. It's a tale of the endless barriers and obstacles he had to encounter on his way to the apex. With a mind so focused on moving forward, he remained positive through it all, so much so that it wasn't until he overcame his obstacles that he realized they even existed.

If you are looking for motivation on life's journey, look no further than 'The Luckiest Man Who Grew up in an Engineered and Manufactured Poverty.'"

Published by Page Publishing, Gerard Germain's inspiring book is a testament to a life lived in great fortitude and purpose amid the many toils the world gives.
